EASTERN DATES TO THE 3D.

Fortress Monroe, Oct. 1 .- The hospital steamer George Leany arrived this afternoon and reports fighting in progress on the north aide of the James; also heavy firing south of Petersburg, which continued at a late hour

The hospital steamer Matilda exploded her boiler last evening, just after having landed 200 wounded soldiers from Hampton Hospi-

The dispatch steamer Connecticut arrived last evening with dispatches from Farragut.
Fort Morgan was being put in a condition for a long defense. The enemy were trying to place torpedoes in the channel above Fort Morgan. The report that our gunboats are Morgan. The report that our gunboats are near the city is incorrect.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Charleston Mercury says Beauregard has accepted the command of Hood's army.

New York, Oct. 2.—The Herald's 10th corps correspondent says, in the operations of that corps in the advance on Richmond, the corps hards arms at 25th and by broke camp at 3 A. M., on the 28th, and by rapid march reached and crossed James river by daylight next day. Immediately in advance they mut the enemy and skirmished up the roads and across the fields till near Market road. This road was occupied by the enemy who were strongly fortified on the hights. The advance was obstinately contes-The position, in addition to its strong natural character, was rendered doubly form dable and almost impenetrable.

The colored troops under Gen. Paine were ordered to carry this position. Their charge was one of the grandest features in the operations of the day. They never halted nor faltered, though their ranks were sadly thinged as they advanced. The processing the colored of the color ned as they advanced. The successful ac-complishment of their task put the enemy into confusion and sent them rapidly down the road toward Richmond.

Gens. Grant and Butler came on the field during this struggle and were enthusiastically received by the troops. When Grant rode along the lines shouts and cheers arose from the men without example.

Three miles above New Market the enemy have very strong works. Birney pressed his advantage and pursued the retiring enemy so closely that they could not stop and reform in this work.

Two miles forther up the enemy have a strong line of redoubts. Their guns sweep the road in all directions. Birney at once determined to carry such works as lay in his front by general assault, reconnoitering the ground in person amid a storm of shells I have never seen surpassed. In crossing an intervening crest of open land they were exposed to a frightful enfilading fire—still the line pressed forward. The line was finally withdrawn to the farther side crest, which position was held till night. Though an advance up the road of from half to three quarters of a mile was accomplished, it cost us The corps lost over 5,000 killed and wounded.

At the same this was going on, Kautz's cavalry dashed boldly to the very gates of Rich-mond-which fact he reported to Butler, who immediately dispatched Davison's infantry to his aupport. This division marched unresisted to within musket range of Richmond and probably might have marched into the rebel englial, though it is clear they could not have neld it. On arriving in the suburbs of the city, they found Kautz hud withdrawn. The division was then ordered to return. Though our advance was checked at Laurel Hill, the expedition has by no means terminated.

New York, Oct. 3d.—The Herald has the following account of the fighting on Thursday north of the James: Three desperate ef-forts were made by the enemy to retake the works captured from them by us on Thursday. Gen. Lee in person commanded; but the rebels were each time driven back with considerable loss. Prisoners report 1,000, at least killed and wounded. Over 300 pris-oners were taken, including many officers and the greater part of the 8th N. C. regiment.—
Ameng those captured are several field officers and Capt. Maguire, Inspector-General of Clingman's staff—all by Stanard's division.

The Herald's special from Martinsburg Oct.

a, says the latest from Sheridan left him ma-king preparations to force the remnant of Early's army from Brown's Gap in the Blue Ridge. Early's position is represented to be a very strong one. He doubtless intends to 2. Id it as a pretection to Gordonsville and Charlottsville, as well as Lynchburg.

World's Washington specia ming says, an unauthenticated report prevails here that our cavalry had entered Gordons-

The following is the Tribune's report of the operations south of Petersburg, 29th : Gen. Gregg, supported by two brigades of infantry, pushed his reconnoisance from our left to wards the Lynchburg railroad as far as the Poplar Spring Church, beyond the Vaughan turnpike, but no enemy were seen. Next day Gen. Griffin's division of the 5th corps advancing beyond the church in a northwest direction, came on. The enemy was in a strong position about two miles from the Welden railroad. Gen. Griffin decided to catry the works by storm and formed his dithe 3d brigade in advance under Col. Gwynne of the 11th. The whole line was taken with two or three guns and about 50 prisoners .-The other guns were dragged away. The rebels left their dead and wounded on the field. The prisoners belonged to Beauregard's command. Among them was one Major, one Captain, and five Lieutenants. Our loss was not great-about 150; but one of our best officers, Col. Welch of the 16th Michigan was killed. The following officers were captured: Maj. Partridge, Lieut. Wiat, and Lieut. Baird, all of the 16th Michigan. A dispatch from headquarters Army of the on omac to the 2d, says, the enemy attacked Ayre's division yesterday morning and were repulsed with heavy loss. This was the only fighting yesterday on the left, except the at-tack by Wade Hampton's cavalry on Gregg's cavalry, on the Yaughan road, where they were driven back with considerable loss.

Our army is strongly entrenched. A battle may occur at any abonent.

The Richmond, papers bosst of a victory over Sheridan. They say he was retreating. A dispatch from Fortress Monroe says, rebel officers and prisoners in our hands say they think Richmond cannot much longer withstand the siege now in progress. All here are full of hope of success.
